

LaGuardia Gateway Partners

Stewart Steeves, LGP Chief Executive Officer

Stewart Steeves is a senior executive with Vantage Airport Group and Chief Executive Officer of LaGuardia Gateway Partners (LGP), the private company selected by the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey to operate and redevelop LaGuardia Airport's Central Terminal Building, a new Central Hall, and supporting infrastructure. The $4 billion project is the largest public-private infrastructure partnership in America, and one of the biggest and most complex airport redevelopment projects ever executed.

LGP is composed of Vantage Airport Group, Skanska and Meridiam for development and equity investment; and has partnered with Skanska Walsh as the construction joint venture; HOK and WSP | Parsons Brinckerhoff as the design joint venture; and Vantage Airport Group for overall development and management. Mr. Steeves acted as the Bid Director for LGP, leading the consortium through a multi-year competitive design development and bid submission process with the Port Authority. At the same time, he was the Chief Financial Officer and Head of Asset Management at Vantage Airport's Head Office in Vancouver, B.C., where he oversaw the performance of an international network of airports on three continents.

Prior to joining Vantage Airport Group in 2013, Mr. Steeves was Chief Executive Officer of the Nassau Airport Development Company in The Bahamas, where he led more than 150 employees through a $500 million airport redevelopment project, privatization and customer service turnaround.

Prior to becoming the CEO in Nassau, he held the roles of Vice President of Airport Development, and Chief Financial Officer, where he managed construction activity and completed almost $1 billion of financings and re-financings for the redevelopment project.

Mr. Steeves, while serving as Chief Financial Officer, also led the financial restructuring and strategic repositioning of Tradeport International Corporation, a private operator of a low-cost secondary and cargo airport near Toronto, ON.

Prior to joining Vantage Airport Group in 2003, Mr. Steeves' experience included roles in Corporate Finance at the Vancouver International Airport Authority, Project Finance at HSBC in Vancouver, and Construction Project Management for Turner Construction in Chicago, IL.

Mr. Steeves holds a Bachelor of Applied Science Degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Toronto, and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the Ivey School of Business at the University of Western Ontario. He is also a Professional Engineer and a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA).

Mr. Steeves also has a long interest in aviation, and is a licensed pilot for more than 20 years. He most often uses his license to fly seaplanes along the West Coast of Canada.

Mr. Steeves has one son, age 12, and twin daughters, age 8, with his wife, Laura, of almost 17 years of marriage. His family lives in Westchester and are very much enjoying their New York experience.

In May 2017, Mr. Steeves was named as one of City & State's top 25 Queens Influentials.
